

Canoe Race Radio Items

By Fay Bovee as Told to Her by Floyd Davis

One day while I was talking over the air to W8SYQ, Anael Kirby, from Traverse City, was discussing the Fifth Annual Canoe Race Marathon and what a good idea it would be for amateur radio to handle communications for the race. He thought that he could interest "hams," amateur radio operators in Traverse City in helping out. At their next club meeting, they voted to give Grayling full co-operation.

Throughout the next two weeks while plans were being worked out by W8DXH, Floyd Davis, Grayling and W8DXJ, Eben Flie, Grayling, several calls for help from other hams were put on the different nets. A net is when several hams throughout the state pass "traffic" (messages) and "rag-chews" (incidental talks) and technical radio information and are controlled by one station acting as a net control. Several hams thought it would be a swell idea and offered to come and help the Grayling stations.

Means and charts of the counties through which the AuSable River passes were obtained from the Conservation Department and about 31 check points along the river were plotted on Grayling to Oscoda and coded on master charts for the fixed stations. Smaller charts were used for the mobile stations.

As the day of the race approached the interest grew. The race committees in Grayling, Mio and Oscoda were very co-operative in offering information as to roads and places to set up fixed stations and advantage points for mobile stations.

Early on the morning of the race, Bob Bovee with the help of Les Hunter, started pitching a tent on the Court House lawn. Aubrey Blaine, city electrician was hooking up lights for the tent and Bob Lozon was climbing poles to run our communication lines from W8DXJ's main station to the tent to be used to keep Grayling people informed of the canoeists' progress. After the tent was all set and the public address announcing system tested, the amateurs started reporting for station. W8DXJ, "Bob" whose home was thrown open and used as a control base for all hams and who acted as net control station was manned very efficiently by "Eb", W8QPO, Wendell Melberg, of Traverse City and Bob Lozon of Grayling. The women's race which started at 9 A. M. and ran to Stephan's Bridge was covered by W8DXH, "Floyd", and W8LU, Clarence Breninger. Detroit who reported in from their mobile stations the canoe's progress to the main station, W8DXJ in Grayling which relayed it to the P. A. system set up on the Court House lawn.

In the meantime, W8DDN, Harold Wilkie, of Goodrich, assisted by Wendell Strahway, of West Branch was setting up his fixed relay station in Mio at the foot of the Conservation tower. This consisted of several pieces of transmitting equipment mounted in these boxes and orange canvas, housed in a green tent, two lanterns for heat, a few sandwiches and a couple of cans of beans and a very much used coffee pot. Between a large pine tree and a steel tower, was stretched a 135 foot antenna, about 45 feet in the air.

W8YDK, Dr. Benjamin Bragg, of Milford, set up another relay station at McMaster's Bridge, about 17 miles east of Grayling. His antenna was novel because it consisted of a foot hydrogen filled balloon floating about 150 feet in the air to which the antenna wire was connected.

The relay station in Oscoda was set up at the finish line by W8YNG, Bill Maxwell of Mt. Pleasant. This was housed in a house trailer in full view of the river.

As the number 1 canoe was put into the river for the start of the race, W8SYQ, "Kirby" had his mobile rig at the first check point down river and W8DXH "Floyd" was at the second check point and W8ZWM, Harry Heller, of Traverse City was at the third check point. Soon after the last canoe had entered the water at the starting line reports were coming in to the fixed stations by the mobile rigs following the race. At Stephan's Bridge, eight miles east of Grayling, several people held a parking spot by the bridge so our mobile rig could get a good view in the "canoes" passed this point.

When we had followed the canoes to McMaster's Bridge and reports were flowing into the main stations smoothly, we took time out to W8YDK's relay station for sandwiches and sandwiches furnished by the X.Y. (wife).

At Mio W8QPO Harold Kewon, of Muskegon Heights relayed information from the dam to W8LU "Clarence" at the bridge who in turn relayed it to W8DXH "Floyd" at his mobile rig beside the Mio relay station. It was then given to W8DDN, "Harold" in the tent who had to send it to Grayling by CW (code) on a different frequency because of the QRM (man-made interference).

At this point the Conservation Department, unable to reach their station in Oscoda, got the latest information from W8DDN at Mio and telephoned the information to Oscoda. Several times the frequency was cleared and reports relayed to W8AQA, Bob Cooper, in Grand Rapids, W8YIZ, "Farmer" Quintus, Deckerville, and W8IKX, Hank Williams, Detroit, and sent by them back to Grayling.

It was decided to call in the mobile stations from check point near McKinley Bridge for coffee and lunch at Mio. We felt because of the lateness of the hour, very few people would want information until later in the morning. At 5 o'clock Sunday morning reports again were being sent from the mobile rigs. From then until

Grayling Vikings Drop Grid Opener To Gaylord, 7-6

Face Mancelona Friday Night

Due to a fumble while attempting the extra point Grayling lost to Gaylord Friday by the single point after touchdown, 7-6. The Grayling High boys were nearly swept off the field during the 1st quarter by a hard-charging Gaylord 11 but stiffened and held on the 30 yard line. After failing to make any yardage, they punted out of danger and managed to hold Gaylord deep in their own territory all during the 2nd quarter. At half time, Gaylord had the edge on statistics but neither team had scored.

Severely Injured In Accident

Mrs. Cynthia Stephan Hanna, 23, of Flint, was severely injured and her sister, Stephanie, 16, of Grayling less seriously when their car rolled over several times on the Wakeley Bridge Road about 11 miles east of Grayling. Mrs. Hanna, driver of the car, is in Mercy Hospital suffering from a fractured pelvis and concussion. She was thrown clear of the car as it rolled over. Toni suffered lacerations about the head and bruises and was released from the hospital following treatment.

Callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Winslow Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Woods and children of South Whitney, Indiana. Mrs. Winslow and Mrs. Warner Pratt and Henry Denewitt spent Wednesday in Gaylord on business.

forced to punt. Gaylord took the ball over on their 20 yard line and were unable to advance it very far. Just when it seemed that Grayling had bottled up their running attack, Gaylord's full back went through the weak side of the line 65 yards for a touchdown. Schurer converted and the score stood 7-0.

Now a fully aroused Grayling team went to work taking the kick-off, they drove into Gaylord territory. When an end around play lost them yardage, they kicked. Gaylord unable to gain was forced to kick. Grayling having learned her lesson stayed away from the reverses that had cost them so much ground and in 6 plays pushed over a touchdown, a fumble cost them the extra point and score was 7-6.

They kicked-off to Gaylord and in 3 plays Gaylord had lost 12 yards. But Grayling's chances went glimmering as Gaylord's punt was fumbled. They managed to hold Gaylord and forced them to punt but there was not enough time for the Green team to get within striking distance and pull the game out of the fire.

Some of the Grayling boys looked especially good during parts of the game. Skip Hanson, Pete Millikin, Jerry Barber and Delbert Joslyn played good defensively.

Duane Worden with over 100 yards gained, in 14 tries looked very good. Pete Millikin also looked good offensively.

A lot of work must be done this week before the team meets Mancelona. A replacement must be ready for Earl Jensen, regular guard, who also missed the Gaylord game. Duane Worden is also expected to be out for the Mancelona game.

Fowler-Feldhauser Take Third Place

Taking the lead for the second time somewhere between Stephan and Wakeley Bridge, Jay Stephan, 29, of Grayling, and Ted Engel, Jr., 21, of Gaylord, pushed their racing type canoe in front of the 15 team field all the way to cross the finish line at Oscoda for their second straight victory while slashing the Michigan Canoe Championship time by 55 minutes. The new record set by the 1950 and 1951 champions was 17 hours and 37 minutes.

Last year, the Stephan-Engel team cut 25 minutes from the previous record to set at 18 hours and 32 minutes time. They finished this years 240 mile grueling day and night paddle trip 42 minutes ahead of their nearest competition. Hugh Bissonette, two time winner with his brother in 1948 and 1949, teamed this year with Robert Fullerton of Oscoda to take second honors. Their time was 18 hours and 19 minutes to better last year's record by 13 minutes.

Taking third place was an all-Grayling team, Bernard Fowler and Don Feldhauser. Only four other teams finished the tough race. They were in order of their finishing, Earl T. Graham and Jim Wilkins of Alpena, Braught C. Middleton of Glennie and Steve Kolonich of Tawas City, John E. Kellogg of Northville and James Rapin of Detroit, Richard Rieve and William Lynn, both of Lansing. The other eight teams that started the rough and tough canoe marathon dropped out along the way for various reasons.

Both first and second place winners paddled long, narrow, Canadian type racing canoes made at Shawinigan Falls, Que.

Immediately after pulling their canoe from the water, Engel and Stephan were driven to old US-23 bridge at the finish line to receive the Tom Martson Memorial trophy and the $600 first prize in the championship race. They were presented by Miss Shirley Selwa, of Tawas City, 1951 Silver Valley Winter Sports queen.

Second prize of $350 was presented to Fullerton and Bissonette. Bernard Fowler and Don Feldhauser were awarded $225 for third place with fourth receiving $125, fifth $75, sixth $75 and seventh $50.

Engel and Stephan said hail and rain encountered along the river didn't bother them much. They said they did get pretty cold during the night after their canoe tipped over in the middle of Five Channels dam backwaters. Their accident occurred when their canoe ran up on a submerged log when they "cut a corner too short."

Dry jackets at the next portage helped, they said. Bright moonlight aided them in paddling through the backwaters above the Consumers Power Co. dams, they added. They consumed quantities of orange juice and a few pieces of candy on the long journey down the river.

Movies of the canoe race taken by Mort Neff of Detroit will be presented on the WWJ-TV "Michigan Outdoors" program at 10:30 o'clock tonight.

Assisting Miss Wellna in presenting the trophies, medals, and prize checks at the finish line were Don Jordan, president of the Oscoda-Chamber of Commerce, and Burt Stuckney, race finish chairman. Timing the arrivals of the racing canoes was Wayne Culdervee of Oscoda.

Sponsors of the annual championship race included: Grayling, Mio, Glennie, Oscoda-AuSable and the East Michigan Tourist Association.

Ray Snider of Grayling, race chairman, said Sunday that competing canoes in this years race voted in favor of restricting next year's AuSable race to stock canoes only, eliminating racing types. They also expressed themselves in favor of continuing the race as a marathon rather than breaking it up in the two days with an overnight stop in route, he said.

Preceding the start of the race here on Saturday a womens race

One Issue Drawn

In one of his recent syndicated columns, Frank R. Kent wrote, "If and when the story of the present era is calmly written it seems inevitable that the impartial historian should dwell most heavily upon the idiotic fiscal policy which, in defiance of reason and experience, the American government fatuously pursued while passing through its greatest crisis."

There is no lack of detailed and authoritative blueprints for cutting the non-defense costs of government. Any number of organizations and individuals, from the Hoover Task Forces down, have indicated the way in precise terms, not just generalities. In each case, they show how many billions of dollars can be pared without damaging any essential governmental function.

Moreover, this is not a partisan fight. A Democrat, Senator Byrd, has long been the most consistent advocate of tough economy in government—no Republican has worked as hard in this direction. And, lately, a comparative newcomer to the Democratic ranks of the Senate Senator Douglas, has taken up the torch. As it happens, Senator Douglas subscribed almost completely to the late President Roosevelt's New Deal program, and he approves of much of President Truman's version of it. However, he abhors waste and extravagance in government and says so on every possible occasion. This, incidentally, has put both Senators Byrd and Douglas in the White House, dog house. As Mr. Kent pointed out, the President "is bitterly hostile to both."

It is clear as day that the cost of government and the tremendous expansion in the size and power of the sprawling Federal bureaucracy will be one of the two big issues in the next national election, foreign policy being the other. Many commentators, such as Mr. Kent, obviously feel that only the strongest possible public protest, as measured at the polls, can correct an intolerable situation.

To Publish Pictures of LOCAL CHILDREN

O Pictures of the children in this community are to be published in this newspaper as a special tribute to our young citizens. Tomorrow the responsibility for world destiny will rest heavily upon their shoulders. As Americans, they will meet those responsibilities without faltering. Among them, in the years to come, will be many with fame and fortune. But, just as they are right now... with the dawn of a greater tomorrow in their fresh young faces... we, the publishers, want a picture of these future professional men and women, teachers, scientists and, who knows, perhaps a future president of this great country. We want to publish these pictures in a forthcoming special feature. So, Mother and Dad, we will need your cooperation to help make this event a colorful and inspiring exhibit! Arrangements have been made with The Woltz-Allen Studios, nationally known children's photographers, to take the pictures for us at the time and place given below. All you have to do is bring your children as our guests. There is no charge or obligation. However, all children must be accompanied by one parent or other guardian. You do not have to be a subscriber to this newspaper and you do not need to purchase photographs, although you may do so if you wish. Just bring your children down and have the pictures taken. Later you will be shown proofs from which you select the pose you prefer having printed in the paper. The pictures will be published at a later date. It is as simple as that!

You can clip these pictures from the paper and thus obtain a memento of childhood which will become a treasured keepsake and memory record for both you and your children when they grow up.

Below is the time and place to have your children's pictures taken without cost!

Children's Pictures Taken Free And Published In The Avalanche

Series of Photographic Studios of Youngsters

"The best investment in children," says Wm. J. Cameron, "You had better take a good look at them as they pass you on the street, for they are the ones who are going to make a new world for you, and you can catch some glimmer of the dawn in their fresh young faces."

That is a bit of philosophy in which the publishers of this newspaper firmly believe. And because we think our readers should "Catch" some glimmer of the dawn, we intend to help them do it. That is, of course, with the cooperation of the mothers and fathers of the children of this and surrounding communities.

The only way we can give our readers a good look at these future "World Builders" is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series titled "Citizens of Tomorrow."

To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures—they must all be of uniform size and quality—we have made arrangements with the Woltz-Allen Studios, nationally known children's photographers, to take these special pictures for us.

Expert children's photographers for the studios, with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work, will be here Tuesday, October 9. The special studio will be set up at The Shoppenagons Inn and will be open from 10:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M.

There is no charge to the parents! There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. There is no age limit. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with the studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper.

It is entirely up to them! The Avalanche simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more the better. Mothers and Fathers of the community in which this paper circulates should remember the day and dates Tuesday October 9th at The Shoppenagons Inn and not fail to bring

Health Department Warns About Food Poisoning

In view of a recent outbreak of food poisoning in a Roscommon County private camp when 15 people were made seriously ill, the local Health Department urges all citizens to make a careful check on sanitation conditions before they decide to eat or drink in food and drink establishments.

Warning that persons who dine and drink out are top subjects for infections and food poisoning, the Department advises that by glancing at windows, looking at the menu, stepping into the wash room and by observing the waiters, anyone can get a good idea of a drink or food establishment's health potential.

Other pertinent aspects are: A window with a greasy haze means poor ventilation and that food is being fried at too high temperature. In small restaurants, long menus featuring wide varieties of foods indicate many items are left over, which are dangerous because they are likely to be poorly stored and poorly refrigerated. Establishments having dirty wash rooms practically always have dirty kitchens. If employees use the washrooms and no soap is provided, leave immediately. Employees who neglect to wash thoroughly can spread dysentery and other diseases. The washrooms should be clean, well lighted, and provided with liquid or powdered soap and towels.

Waiters should be checked from head to foot. Be sure they don't smoke on the job. See that they have clean uniforms. See that they bring your food on a tray instead of stacking the dishes.

A safe bet is to eat and drink in establishments displaying Sanitation-Approved signs. You can be assured that they are attempting in every way to protect your health.

The kiddies will have much fun and both Mother and Dad—and the youngsters, too—will be very proud to see their pictures in print later. Many will clip them out and preserve them until Junior grows up.

Story Of Ten Free Citizens And What Happened To Them

Ten free citizens, prosperous and content. Scooped at socialist trends, price controls and rent. Coal profits disappeared; miners wouldn't mine; Bureaucrats took over Coal—then there were nine.

Nine free citizens—Farmer saw too late. Dangerous threats in crop controls, then there were eight.

Eight free citizens, each in his heaven; Medicine was socialized—that left seven.

Seven free citizens, swallowed socialist tricks; Planners took Utilities—leaving only six.

Six free citizens — Railroads couldn't thrive; Federal operation came reducing them to five.

Five free citizens, restricted more and more; Steel has been collectivized—that leaves four.

Four free citizens, taxed unmercifully; Government absorbed the Banks, then there were three.

Three free citizens—profits are taboo; Socialized Insurance came, removing all but two.

Two free citizens—Rations have begun; Price controls plague housewives—that leaves one.

One free citizen, the last remaining one, Cannot carry on alone, so now there are none.

Ten little citizens (but there no longer free) Do as they are ordered in a Planned Economy. Socialism got them all, one by one you see. Each little sucker thought: "It never can happen to me!"

Most of the above "happenings" were outlined, recommended and prophesied in "Toward Soviet America" written by Wm. Z. Foster, Communist party leader in 1931. It's later than you think—but you can prevent it.

Consumers Reduce Electrical Rates

A reduction in residential electric rates for approximately 22,000 householders in 16 Michigan counties will take effect September 30 in accordance with an order of the Michigan Public Service Commission issued last year when Consumers Power Company purchased the Michigan Public Service Company.

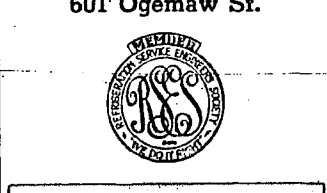

Reductions in rates charged several hundred resort and commercial users will also be reflected in the new schedule of rates which Consumers will place into effect.

The 22,000 customers live in the northern part of the Lower Peninsula in an area that includes Cheboygan, Ludington, Gaylord, Baldwin, Boyne City, Boyne Falls, Central Lake, East Jordan, Elk Rapids, Hesperia, Kalkaska, Mackinaw City, Manistowish, Montague, Northport, Pellston, Shelby, and Whitehall.

Figures released by the Company show that the average residential customers in the area use approximately 150 kilowatt hours of electricity in a month. Based on this use, the average resident can expect to save an additional 51 cents on his monthly bill. This added to the amount already saved by lower rates which were placed into effect by Consumers in September, 1950, makes a total saving over rates charged by the old MPS Co. of $1.09 monthly.

Customers who use only 100 kilowatt-hours a month will save an additional 36 cents monthly to make a total savings of 79 cents monthly over rates charged by the MPS Co.

Users of 200 kilowatt-hours monthly will save an additional 66 cents when the new rates take effect, a savings based on the present rate. The present rate itself reflects a savings of 73 cents over charges by the Michigan Public Service Company for 200 kilowatt-hours in 1950. Thus, in just over 12 months, the monthly bill

Planted 37 Years Ago

The first red pine pulpwood thinning ever made in a state forest has started in Crawford county, marking a significant milestone in Michigan reforestation history. This Higgins Lake forest stand was planted in 1914, about the time the state's reforestation of denuded acreage began gaining momentum. Since 1902 some 206,000,000 mainly red, white and jack pine have been planted in state forests. First actual cutting of planted trees of any type started with jack pine in the Alpena state forest seven years ago. Here, Frank Allen and son, Roscommon, use horse and dray rather than tractor for more efficient harvesting of an early, closely spaced plantation.
